Parchment (fols. 1v and 2r are badly stained and holes have been worn in the parchment from use in a binding). 2 folios (1 bifolium). 195 x 147 mm (written space 145 x 108 mm). 2 columns. 27 lines. Ruled in ink. Single vertical and double horizontal bounding lines. Prickings preserved in outer margins.

Written in gothic script (littera textualis). 2- to 3-line initials alternate in red and blue and are written on the vertical bounding line. 1-line initials are in brown highlighted with red. Rubrics are written in red minuscule. Punctuation consists of the punctus. The quire mark "xiii" is in the center of the lower margin of fol. 1r.

This fragment was once used as the wrapper of a volume measuring ca. 170 x 115 mm.

A modern hand has written the number "33" in pencil in the outer margin of fol. 2v.
