Ninth Sunday after Pentecost.

Parchment. 2 folios (1 bifolium; folio numbers "44" and "47" are written in the upper center margins of the recto; the numbers "xxxiiii" and "xxxvii" are written in the upper right corners of the recto). 245 x 160 mm (written space 190 x 124 mm). 2 columns. 30 lines. Ruled in lead.
Single vertical and horizontal bounding lines.

Written in gothic script (littera textualis). 2-line initials alternate red and blue and are not set apart from the text; they are written over guide letters in black ink. 1-line capitals, which include the first letter after the 2-line initials, are in black filled with yellow. Rubrics are written in red in the same script as the text. Punctuation consists of the punctus and the punctus elevatus. Hyphenation is in the same ink as the text.

The fragment was used in the binding of a volume measuring ca. 150 x 105 mm, with the title "Caterino Compendio d'errori" and shelf number "B14" (or "Bi4") written on the spine. The title refers to the Compendio d'errori by Ambrosius Catharinus Politus. An edition of this work was published in 1544 in Rome (In Roma ne la Contrada del Pellegrinus per M. Girolama de Cartolari, a instantia di M. Michele Tramezino. MDXLIII), with two other tracts by the same author, the Resolutione sommaria contra le conclusioni luterane and the Reprobatione de la dottrina di frate Bernardino Ochino. Because the measurements of the edition of these three works correspond closely to those of the volume bound by the Beinecke fragment, it is likely that the Beinecke fragment was used as a binding for a copy of this edition.
