f. 3v Alia.

Ueni spiritus ternorum ... munus esse crederis.//

Anon., s. X/XI (Pentecost); AH 53.71; Schaller-Koensgen 17050.

Parchment. 3 folios. Fol. 1 measures 262 x 185 mm; fol. 2 measures 190 x 208 mm; fol. 3 measures 270 x 230 mm (written space 220 x 145 mm). 1 column. 28 lines. Dry-point ruling on the hair side. Horizontal text rulings extend into outer margins to accommodate neumes. Double vertical bounding lines.

Written in Caroline minuscule in the same style and apparently in the same scriptorium as the hymnal Beinecke MS 481.36. On the dating and localization of these leaves see the description of MS 481.36. 1- and 2-line initials are a mixture of orange uncials and square capitals and are set apart from the text between double bounding lines. Rubrics are written in orange rustic capitals. The first 2 to 4 words of each sequence are written in a mixture of brown uncials and square capitals. Punctuation consists of the punctus. Neumes in the St. Gall style are in the outer margins; The phrase "alleluia" is written with neumes in the margins in orange rustic capitals (fol. 1) or orange uncials (fols. 2 and 3) next to the first line of each sequence.

The inscription "Stift Lambach," visible under ultraviolet light, is written in the upper margin of fol. 3r. For other manuscripts by the same scribe see the description of MS 481.36. All three leaves have remnants of paper glued to them from their use in a binding; on one of the paper fragments there is writing in a fifteenth-century German cursive gothic hand.

A modern hand has written "N<sup>ro</sup> I" in ink in the upper margin of fol. 1r and "N. II" in the upper margin of fol. 3r.

Fols. 1 and 2 were formerly Beinecke MS 482.22 A and B, Zinniker 11 and 54; fol. 3 was formerly Zinniker 220.
