Malachi 2.3-12. The upper margin has been trimmed with loss of text.

Parchment (rubbed and stained). 1 folio. 175 x 257 mm (written space originally ca. 305 x 193 mm). 2 columns. 22 of ca. 40 lines remaining. Ruled in ink. Double vertical bounding lines.

Written in gothic script (littera textualis). 2-line round E of Zach. 14.1 in red, written on the vertical bounding line. The chapter also begins with the number "XIII" in alternating blue and red. 1-line initials are in brown highlighted with red. Rubrics are written in red in a slightly larger and more formal littera textualis. Punctuation consists of the punctus, punctus elevatus, punctus versus and punctus interrogativus, many of which are added, altered or highlighted in red. Accents have been added in red ink. The rubricator has also made a number of corrections to the text as has another contemporary hand in brown ink.

The fragment was once used as the wrapper for a volume measuring ca. 155 x 100 mm.
