St. Andrew (30 November). The outer and lower margins have been trimmed with loss of text.

Parchment. 1 folio (foliated "CX" on the recto). 183 x 158 mm (the original written space is uncertain). 1 column. 6 lines remaining. Ruled in ink.

Written in gothic script (littera textualis formata). 4-line historiated initial "D" ("Dominus") in blue on a dark red ground bordered with gold. The initial, of workshop quality and badly rubbed and damaged by water, shows Christ standing on the shore with Andrew and Peter in a boat. The 2-line initial at the beginning of the psalm is in black highlighted with yellow. 1-line initials and the first letter after the historiated initial are in black capitals highlighted with red. The extant margins on the recto are decorated with blue and gold vines from which come pink, green and gold flowers. Rubrics are written in red in a less formal script than the text. Punctuation consists of the punctus. Words and syllables are separated by horizontal strokes in red. The foliation is written in red in the center of the upper margin of the recto.

Gift of Henrietta C. Bartlett in 1954. According to DeRicci, Miss Bartlett obtained this fragment from Maggs.
